PIANOS AND MANUFACTURERS TODAY—YESTERDAY

Presto-Times has been requested on several occasions to again give a list of piano manufacturing concerns now operating together with a list of the ones that have discontinued manufacturing within some years past, say within the past ten years. The names presented herewith, then, are classified as (1) those that have gone entirely out of business and the pianos they made practically discontinued; (2) those that have united with other manufacturers and the business continued under new management; (3) concerns in liquidation, re-organization, or in the hands of creditors' committee; (4) piano manufacturing concerns now operating.
